

WOW! Honored as Best and Brightest Company to Work For in the Nation® for Sixth Time

For the second year in a row, the broadband provider is recognized for its commitment to a best-in-class employee culture

Englewood, Colo. – April 23, 2020 – WOW! Internet, Cable & Phone (NYSE: WOW), a leading broadband services provider, was named a 2019 Best and Brightest Company to Work For in the Nation® by the National Association for Business Resources for the second year in a row.

WOW! is receiving this national honor for the sixth time in recognition of the company's excellence in human resources practices as well as business and employee standards. WOW! won this award previously in the Chicago, Atlanta and Metro Detroit markets highlighting the company's keen focus on their employee culture and workforce potential across the U.S.

WOW!'s dedication to its employees stems from the company's values of respect, integrity, spirit of service and accountability and transcends into initiatives within the company that focus on career training and development, employee recognition and competitive wages and benefits. The company also put strategies and employee initiatives in place, which drastically improved its employee net promoter score (eNPS) from a low of 13 in December 2017 to a current high of 35. With this foundation in mind, WOW! continues to achieve success meeting both corporate and employee goals, which align perfectly with the Best and Brightest Companies to Work For® criteria.

"We are so proud of the hard work and dedication our employees demonstrate on a daily basis, both while they are on the job and when they volunteer in their communities," said David Brunick, chief human resources officer of WOW!. We are thrilled to continue to be recognized by the National Association for Business Resources with yet another Best and Brightest Company to Work For award, which is a true testament to our incredible employees who are the heart of this organization. "

In addition to the national award, earlier this year WOW! was named one of Metro Detroit's Best and Brightest Companies to Work For®. One way WOW!'s Detroit-area employees chose to honor their work culture and pay it forward in their community, was to volunteer at Gleaners Distribution Center, a local food bank, to help fight hunger in southeast Michigan. Employees helped Gleaners pack and deliver more than 2,000 pounds of vegetables to help feed more than 1,700 neighbors in the area.
